
NATHAN AWEAU

Ka'ahi

Lahaina > Ka'anapali, sugarcane train

No. 1 Anaka

No. 3 Myrtle - Makala

No. 45 Oahu

Hahakea - wooden bridge.

Hale Mahina - West Maui mountains.

1. Ka Anaka she runs on through the night.

Chugging merciless to wili ko (sugar mill).

Ho'oholo ea (moving swiftly), ho'opahupahu (blowing strongly),

she never ends...yes she will.

2. Ka Makala she glides over the tracks.

Over hahakea (wooden bridges), through alapao (tunnels).

Puni Hale Mahina (around west Maui mountains), E Lahaina (to Lahaina).

She rules the night.

Chorus

Ua walo e ka pio (the whistle blows loudly), kaua mea holo ka'ahi (let's ride the train). Gotta get away.

3. Ka 'O'ahu she runs endlessly, e puku kalina (stormy winds) she becomes.

Puni Hale Mahina (around west Maui mountains),

E Lahaina (to Lahaina).

She rules the night...yes she does.
